

IT TAKES THE RIGHT
BALANCE
to Be a Skilled Trial Attorney.

Having a Record of Winning Trial Verdicts Doesn't Hurt Either.

It takes the right balance of attention to details, determination, and courtroom experience to be defined as a "True Trial Attorney." The Pride at Potter Burnett isn't just defined by our countless verdicts, instead we're defined through the injured victims that we represent. As a boutique-style law firm, we pride ourselves on representing the people of our community against big business insurance companies who make a profit at the expense of injured victims.

Dedicated to protecting our client's pride, Potter Burnett Law is a leader in the practice areas of motor vehicle crashes, nursing home negligence, and medical malpractice. Nationally acclaimed trial attorneys Deborah L. Potter, Suzanne V. Burnett, Andrew T. Burnett, and Christopher D. Salsman, understand the importance of presenting detailed facts that can turn the tables on any case. Potter Burnett's Pride of trial lawyers has the courtroom experience to confidently represent your case.
